How do we print? We use a technique called 'Dye Sublimation Printing'

What is dye sublimation printing? Dye sublimation printing is a process whereby a negative of the image is printed onto special transfer paper. The ink is then heated to a gas in a heat transfer press and absorbed into the surface of the magnetic dry wipe board. The graphics are embedded in the whiteboard. This gives huge benefits over other printing methods, such as:

- High quality print
- Ideal for food manufacturers and hospitals, as there is no vinyl overlay to gather germs.
- Totally smooth, clean surface
- Easy to keep clean and offers a longer life span

How to clean your whiteboard

Prior to initial use, you must first clean your whiteboard surface. Use a clean microfibre cloth and warm water and wipe over your board thoroughly. Next, take a dry microfibre cloth and dry the board. Finally, spray your whiteboard cleaning fluid onto a soft, clean and dry cloth and go over the whole board once more. Do not spray the fluid directly onto the board.

LOGO WHITEBOARD

Magnetic Logo Whiteboards are made from quality magnetic coated steel and offer an excellent dry wipe surface. With our Magnetic Logo Whiteboards, you can choose to print your logo onto any edge of the whiteboard, reinforcing your brand image across your company, to both visitors and employees.
